TRUE ACCOUNT

OF THE KILLING OF SANFORD BY GOEBEL

Malicious Misrepresentations Set at Rest by Statement of Coroner Tarvin.

An Illustrated Political Paper.

The Verdict, of New York, is a weekly journal printed in colors. It is the only illustrated Democratic paper in the United States. Each issue contains three cartoons, dealing pictorially with contemporaneous public events and public persons in a vigorous, characteristic way.

The paper is broadly Democratic in principles. Its views of affairs are not local but national. Its attitude toward the public questions of the day, political and economic, has already made a National impression. Editorially, it is the most prominent paper in the country.

In other countries the same tactics have been employed. Particularly has this been true in Henderson county.

At the request of friends and in order to get a true statement of the difficulty between Sanford and

To Brown Democrats.

GENTLEMEN:—The CLIMAX entered upon this campaign with regrets expressed that it found its duty at variance with the ideas of some of its friends, hitherto true Democrats, who could not endorse the nominees of the Louisville convention. Having attended the convention, witnessed its proceedings, and being favorable first to Capt. Stone's candidacy, we were disappointed at his defeat. But the triumph of the party was a primary consideration, and we came home determined to support the whole ticket. Since then our zeal has only increased, as we witnessed the assaults upon Democracy, directed principally against its leading standard-bearer. If we be wrong to adhere to the ticket, it is largely through a habit of supporting the nominees of the party, a habit which most of you practised with honour up to this hour. Therefore, we laid aside our disappointment at defeat, and are doing as you would have us do were your candidate, and not Goebel, at the head of the ticket. If this is not true, then we ask you to answer these questions honestly, frankly, and see where duty leads you, as we can answer them for ourselves in but one way—by electing the entire Democratic ticket.

1 Shall we permit the railroads, the chief political agents of Hanna and McKinley in the South, to control the Democratic organization and the executive, legislative and judicial officers of Kentucky?

2 Shall Kentucky take an immediate and commanding position in the battle against the trusts?

3 Shall the railroads at non-competitive points be allowed to tax the shippers, producers and consumers by charging exorbitant and discriminating freight rates?

4 Shall Kentucky free herself from the clutches of the school book trust and secure the same school books just as cheaply as Indiana, West Virginia and other States?

5 Shall we suffer the State to be ruled four years longer by ignorant, incompetent and extravagant Republicans?

6 Shall we send another Republican nonentity like DeLoe to the United States Senate for six years, or shall we return Joseph C. S. Blackburn?

7 Shall we make it possible for Mark Hanna to again rob Bryan of the victory in 1900?

These gentlemen, are the only issues, and you are being blindly, but willingly diverted from them by the enemy to concentrate your mind upon other matters that they may obtain your votes to defeat your party. That's all you can do.

They harped on the unfortunate Sandford matter, notwithstanding Mr. Goebel's vindication in the courts and an offer of Gov. Bryan to pardon him before trials.

They have dwelt upon the election law, though admitting that the election commissioners in every county are men of high character, Democratic and Republican.

They magnified "Hallam's lost brother" into an issue, but the court records showed that unfortunate individual to have been imprisoned for an offense that had to be exposed to sustain Mr. Goebel's accusation—an accusation wrong from his heart by Hallam's insinuation that Goebel's mother was not a virtuous woman—a charge, as far as it was brutal; a dirty, lying, cowardly charge that any Brown Democrat would have resented with blows, not words.

They have talked the Louisville convention threadbare, but the chief lieutenants of those who opposed Goebel have disposed of that issue, justifying what was done there, by a quiescing in the will of the majority.

Read the seven propositions above. They are the cardinal issues of the campaign. Upon your action this year may depend the welfare of Democracy in 1900. It is not Goebel we plead for. It is for our great party led by William Jennings Bryan. [Long applause.]

under shelter was occupied by ladies. In the street, in a two-inch-area of soupy mud 4000 men in solid mass were packed. The crowd was patient and good-humored, damp but Democratic. And Mr. Miller kept them posted of the progress of the oncoming train, reciting cheerfully at every announcement.

THE ESCAPE WAS A PRIZE SPECTACLE. On ten great horses ten marshalls rode in two's: W. S. Hume, Will Aruckle, William Bates, Dr. Ross Gibbs, Bud Dunn, Dan Boggs, John Waggers, P. B. Broadbent, Joe Mitchell.

Then followed the Richmond Band, three closed carriages and an omnibus. The carriage occupied by Bryan, Blackburn, Goebel and McCreary was drawn by Devore's four beautiful white horses with plumes in their bridle. The hand was in Mohrle's furniture car, but the music was completely drowned by the roar of voices as Bryan's carriage drove in sight. Never since Adam was an infant did cheering sound so terrific in this city. The tympanum of the ear was pained by the reverberations of countless voices elevated to the highest pitch. Out stepped Bryan and his companions, accompanied by Mrs. Bryan, and when they appeared where all could see them the air was tremulous with the mighty cheer that rent it again and again.

The platform was draped in the national colors; lighted by scores of electric jets in red, white and blue, and looking down from above Mr. Bryan was an oil portrait of that great American, executed by Mrs. C. Sidney Cobb, of this city.

On the stand were Mr. and Mrs. Bryan, J. C. S. Blackburn, Governor Goebel, Gov. McCreary and wife, Hon. and Mrs. W. B. Smith, Miss Margaret Chenault, Mrs. C. W. Cobb, Hon. J. T. Cobb, R. Harris Crooke, Messrs. Wm. Harber, of Red House (who shook Bryan until the latter's teeth chattered), Thomas Ball, of Paint Lick, and a dozen other local citizens; B. Dillingham, E. H. Ballard, of Paint Lick, and a dozen other local citizens; in addition, were Hon. Urey Woodson, National Committee-man, Editor Sewell, of London, Ky., several correspondents of Eastern papers and the Courier-Journal. The latter is the only paper in Kentucky that has attempted to print Mr. Bryan's speech on this tour, and it reports every word he says.

GOV. McCREARY'S INTRODUCTORY SPEECH.

This is a conspicuous, splendid, and ever-to-be-remembered occasion. We have with us the gallant and gifted; the tried and true statesmen and patriot who shall be, and who, we trust, will be the next President of the United States.

Accompanying him are two Democrats, whom we delight to honor as the next Governor of Kentucky (applause) and the next United States Senator from Kentucky.

The hearts of all Democrats who are present to-day must thrill with pride and joy, and the vast assemblage prove the enthusiasm, earnestness and determination of the people.

The Bryan train was speeding "On to Richmond"; the people began to swarm about the station; thousands soon stood waiting a half hour before. Every window and door on Main from First to Second, every store door and office entrance, every stick of dressing room

We are prepared to clothe you with the Lowest-Priced, right-made, as it is of the famous "Vitale" Brand, the only Ready-to-Wear Clothing Tailors, on a perfect scientific basis in clean, well-ventilated work-rooms. Perfect fitting and wear. Because the inside of the "Vitale," the very life of the garment is carefully in making represents the expenditure of time and thought, and is a decided contrast to the tailoring seen in ordinary Ready-to-Wear Clothing. The Fabrics we show are of the very newest designs that will be seen this season. Many confined exclusively to us, in the face of the above facts.

The most extraordinary feature combining our great offerings is, that we can and do sell our Clothing at less money THAN ELSEWHERE.

How can we afford to sell such high-grade Clothing for less money than elsewhere? Our answer is pure and simple: Ours is a modern store, constructed strictly on progressive plans, our Clothing is sold on the smallest margin of profit, depending on a large volume of business.

The more Clothing we sell, the greater our purchasing power, the lower our prices, that's the story in a nut-shell.

An old man's Fatal Injury.

After going to press last Tuesday afternoon we heard of the fatal injury that had just been inflicted Andrew Wallace Jarman, an aged citizen, near Berea. Another Chance to Register.

City voters who were sick, absent or prevented by other justifiable reasons from registering two weeks ago, will have another opportunity, as by law the county clerk has assigned November 1, 2 and 3 for that purpose. Such voters should appear at the clerk's office on any of the above days and register, or they cannot vote during the next twelve months.

Irvine's New Postmaster one of Fourteen Brothers.

Miss Dolly Williams Weds.

Thomas Wallace, brother of Postmaster Wallace, of this city, was appointed on Thursday postmaster at Irvine to succeed Bert Powell. Thus two brothers hold similar positions under Uncle Sam. As there were fourteen brothers in all, and all are Republicans, their reward is no greater than their deserts. The two sisters cannot yet vote.

Best Eve Here.

The largest and best circus ever in Richmond, Forepaugh & Sells Bros., exhibited here Monday. There were 500 horses, 650 people, 50 wagons in the parade, besides the entire menagerie. Everybody was there except Billy Patterson who was struck by an idea that he would act peculiar and remain away. Mr. Frank O. Miller, the press representative, is worth his weight in gold, and the Company should be proud of him. He can get our services at any time. There were probably 10,000 people in town.
